Winter Band Day Program

Please join us on February 1, 2025 as we present Winter Band Day!

Winter Band Day, conceived in 1995, is an outreach program presented by the Southwest Community Concert Band.

The purpose of this event is to provide students with opportunity to participate in a music festival format without the stress of an audition.

Middle and Junior High School students of all levels are welcome to participate in a fun, non-competitive day of making music just for the sake of making music!
